

Edinburgh University Trampoline Club Code of Conduct

As a member of Edinburgh University Trampoline Club, I shall adhere to the following code of conduct and acknowledge my responsibility in the following.

- To always follow the club values of support, inclusivity and dedication
- To take responsibility for ensuring that I wear suitable attire, including removal of jewellery, for training and events.
- To refrain from participating in or supporting any behaviour that could be constituted as any form of bullying or harassment.
- To represent the club in a positive manner.
- To attend all training sessions for the full duration, except for in exceptional circumstances.
- To respect all members of the trampoline community, including coaches and officials, and their decisions
- To train only when suitably fit to and never under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs.
- To train safely, by respecting equipment, training within my ability and fitness level and only in the presence of an appropriately qualified coach
- To act with integrity and objectivity, and to accept responsibility for decisions and actions taken.
- To respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants, regardless of gender, ability, identity, cultural background or religion, both in and outside of the training environment.
- To act responsibly and safely at socials.

The committee reserves the right to suspend any member from training or socials if they are found to be in breach of the agreed code of conduct.
